Read Mark 1

What do you find to be the most challenging aspect of being a Christian at this point in time?

What difference (if any) do you think it makes to say that Jesus was the message of the gospel instead of simply the sayings or teachings of Jesus?

Mark's writing puts his readers inside the story, drawing attention to Christ being right here present with us today. If you could ask Christ to speak into one specific aspect of your life right now, what would it be?

Mark's purpose was to hold up the truth that Jesus is the Son of God. What does that signify to you, if anything? What does it mean and why does it matter so much?

Flip through Mark to find some of the instances where he uses the phrase "Immediately Jesus..." What impact did his quick response have? How does it change things to know he is immediately available to us?
