Read Mark 1:21-28

What comes to mind for you when you think of the word authority? Does it feel more positive or negative in your mind and why?

Read John 5:27, Ephesians 1:18-23. When taken alongside the Mark story, what can we say about the authority of Jesus?

The sermon made the point that the word "impure" or "unclean" used to characterize a spirit can mean "the wrong mix." How does that impact the way you think of spiritual warfare? What types of "wrong mix" do you find impacting your own spirit at times?

Are there questions you have about God that you wish Christ would quiet? What would you want to hear him say?

What about Christ's authority makes it possible to more vulnerable? Is there one thing you would like to choose to entrust to him?
