Read Acts 6:1-7

Have you ever encountered a system that was inherently biased or unjust? What was the impact?

Compare this story with Exodus 18:13-27. What similar themes emerge?

What significance does it have that all seven of the names mentioned in the list are Greek? What could be a takeaway from that?

The very practical tasks involved with food distribution still required people who were full of the Holy Spirit. What does that tell us for how we look at our own participation in church life?

What is a practical concern that is on your heart, where you see the church needing change? Pray about how God might enlist your help in addressing the need.
